THE Pennsylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

FROM APRIL 20. TO APRIL 27. 1738.

LONDON, January 7.

YESTERDAY His Majesty was not at the Chapel-Royal as usual, to offer Gold, Myrrh, and Frankinsence, in Imitation of the Eastern Magi, or Wise Men, who offer'd in that Manner to our Saviour on that Day.

There was no Ball at St. James's, or playing at Cards by His Majesty as usual.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, who was lately indispos'd, is much better; His Highness rides out every Day for the Air, and this Day their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess goes to Clifden-House near Maidenhead to Dinner.

Newcastle, Jan 7. They write from Scarborough of the 31st past, that the Day before in the Afternoon, the Spaw Cliffs parted from the main Continent, and a Piece 160 Yards long and 40 broad, sunk down between that and the Edge of the Cliff 16 Yards. The Key before the Spaw Houses was rais'd 15 or 16 Feet above the Surface of the Earth; the Houses, overturn'd by the motion of the Earth, took Fire, and were burnt to Ashes; and the Spaw-Water in great Danger of being lost.

LONDON, Jan. 12. Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland, which brought the following Advices.

From Petersburgh, that the Field Marshals Munich and Lacy being return'd there from the Ukrane, a Grand Council of War will be held forthwith, when a Plan for carrying on the Operations of the next Campain against the Turks will be agreed to. Those who pretend to be most in the Secret, give out, that the Design is to march directly to Bender, in order to take that Place, the more readily to join the Russian Troops with those of the Emperor.

From Leghorn, that the Malecontents in Corsica have lately receiv'd a great Quantity of warlike Stores, consisting of Guns, several Pieces of Cannon, and Ammunition of all sorts, brought them by 4 foreign Vessels; that they appear more resolv'd than ever to support Lord Theodore as their Governor, and never to return again to the Obedience of the Republick of Genoa. That Mr. Jackson, a considerable English Merchant residing there, (at Leghorn) being appointed the British Consul at Genoa, in the Room of the late Mr. Bagshaw, is set out to enter upon the Execution of that Station.

From Vienna, that there has been held at Count Harrach's House, a Conference upon the Affairs relating to the Field Marshal Count Seckendorff: that Count Philippi, lately arriv'd there from Hungary, assisted at it; and that the Affairs of the said Count Seckendorff seem to take a more favourable turn: It is certain, that as yet there has been no personal Examination, and many doubt whether ever there will be one; and that greater Liberties are given to that General than usual since his Confinement.

Letters from all Parts of Hungary confirm the Retreat of the Ottoman Troops from the Frontiers of the Imperial Territories; and add, that their Troops are very sickly, particularly those that came from Asia, who are by no means able to bear the Cold which prevails in these Parts. They write from Transylvania, that the contagious Distemper which was thought to have been greatly abated, had begun again to rage terribly, and had spread itself into other Cantons.

From Warsaw, the last Letters from Podovia confirm the News, that a Body of Russian Troops were to pass through that Province the Beginning of the approaching Spring, in order to supply the Emperor. Which Letrers add, that the Court of Russia had sent a Plan thither of the Route that these Troops were to take in their Way to Moldavia. This News has much alarm'd the Inhabitants of that Province, and the neighbouring Country, because it's said the Bashaw of Choczim hath delar'd to the Bishop of Caminiec, that upon the first Advice which should be receiv'd that the Russians had set Foot in Poland, the Porte would cause a Turkish and Tartar Army to enter therein likewise, in order to fight its Enemies, and hinder their Passage.

January 16. Since our last arriv'd a Mail from Holland with the following Advices.

From Constantinople, that the Curtzchy Bachi, accus'd of having too close a Correspondence with the Kyaya of the late Grand Vizir, who was beheaded on the Deposition of that Prime Minister, was lately executed here. This Curtzchy Bachi was possess'd of immense Riches, which have been confiscated to the Use of the Grand Seignior. We are assur'd, that the Porte has declar'd itself ready to accept of the Mediation of France, and the two Maritime Powers, to accommodate its Differences with the Courts of Vienna and Russia, but that it wish'd the Treaty of Passarowitz might be the Basis of the Negociation, and that the Court of Russia would content itself with the Town of Asoph. As it is much doubted whether the Powers engaged in the War will accept of these Conditions, the necessary Preparations are making for carrying on the War with all possible Vigour. For that Purpose, new Taxes are laid upon the Inhabitants of that City, and the other principal Cities of the Empire, great Numbers of Troops and Recruits are sent to join the Armies of the Grand Seignior, both in Hungary, and upon the Frontiers of Poland and Tartary, and many of the banish'd Bashaws, whose Merit is well known, are recall'd to be employ'd among the Troops. That Prince Ragotsky continues still there, has great Honours done him, and a Guard of Janissaries has been presented to him by the Grand Seignior, and is posted at the Gate of his Palace. His Sublime Highness appears well satisfy'd with the Conduct of the Bashaw of Cassa in the Crimea, during the Time the same was invaded by the Russians, and has presented him with a magnificent Sabre enrich'd with Diamonds.

From Petersburg, that the last Letters from the Frontiers of Turky advise, that the Grand Vizir was gone from Cattala to Adrianople, to pass the Winter there, but 'twas thought he would make a Tour to Constantinople, to report to the Grand Signior the State of Affairs, and to consult ſult with the Members of the Council upon Means how to put the Forces on ſuch a Foot as to enable them to act with more Succeſs againſt the Ruſſians. 'Tis further added, that it was there believ'd this Miniſter would be depoſed before the opening of the Campaign.

From Nimirow, by the Way of Warſaw, that all the Turkiſh Troops which were in the Neighbourhood of Bender, are march'd to take Winter-Quarters in the Villages on the other ſide of the Nieſter. The ſame Letters add, that the Plague rages at Bender, and makes great Havock there.

The Commiſſaries appointed by the Emperor to enquire into the Conduct of Count Seckendorff, continue to take new Informations and examine Witneſſes, and ſeveral Officers belonging to the Chancery of War are ſent for from Hungary, to be examin'd in relation to that Affair. The Court has ſent Orders to put a Stop to all Communication between that Kingdom and Tranſylvania, to prevent the contagious Diſtempers which rage in that Province from ſpreading into Hungary.

From Catalonia, that the Court of Spain is aſſembling a great Body of Troops there, where are already 28000 Men; and that there ſeems to be a Deſign of employing them in the Spring. As yet we cannot penetrate into the Deſign of this Armament.

London, Jan 16. We hear that the Right Hon. the Earl of Hyndford will be choſen one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland without Oppoſition, in the room of the late Earl of Moreton, deceas'd.

Jan. 16. Yeſterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland, and another from France, which brought the following Advices.

From Conſtantinople, that upon the Arrival of the Secretary of the Seraskier of Oczakow, Priſoner in Ruſſia, with Propoſitions for recommending Negociations of Peace, a Divan was held, the Reſult of which was, that no particular Negociation ought to be enter'd into, after making uſe of the good Offices of the Mediating Powers; and therefore all Propoſitions relating to Peace ought to be referr'd to a new Congreſs. The Porte has receiv'd Advice, that Thamas Kouli Kan had gain'd great Advantages over the Malecontents, which refus'd to own his Authority, and that he was likely ſoon to be Maſter of Candahar. This News has cauſed great Joy amongſt the People, who hope that the happy Succeſs of Thamas Kouli Kan will put him in a Condition of aſſiſting the Grand Signior, in caſe the War continues; which is by them ſo ardently wiſh'd for, that ſhould the Sultan come into any Terms of Peace that would oblige him to give up either Aſoph or Oczakow, a general Revolt would it's thought happen, from the Conſequence of which his Highneſs himſelf would ſcarcely be ſhelter'd. Prince Ragotski continues to have as great Honours paid him, as if he was actually Duke of Tranſylvania, whoſe intended Expedition into that Province is defer'd till Spring. Preparations for War are carry'd on with the utmoſt Vigour, and warm Reſolutions made to conclude no Peace that ſhall in the leaſt reflect Diſhonour on the Porte.

From Vienna, that Count Fuenclara, Ambaſſador from Spain, has receiv'd conſiderable Remittances from his Court, to defray the Expences of his Journey to Dreſden, where he intends to go the latter End of this Month. It's ſaid that the Value of the Preſents that his Excellency is to make to the Princeſs Royal, in the Name of their Catholick Majeſties and of the King of the Two Sicilies, amounts to more than 700,000 Florins. After this Ambaſſador ſhall have conducted the Royal Spouſe of the Kingdom of Naples, he will return hither, and continue to exerciſe the Functions of his Employment.

The Grand Duke of Tuſcany is actually inveſted with the Patent of Captain-Lieutenant-General of the Imperial Armies, and in that Quality has diſpatch'd ſeveral Orders. The News that the Court of Ruſſia has accepted the Mediation of France, jointly with that of the two Maritime Powers, to negociate a Peace with the Ottoman Porte, has been receiv'd here with great Joy: However, nothing is neglected to put the Army in a Condition to act with Vigour, and early to open the Campain. The new Levies have all the Succeſs that can be wiſh'd; and great Numbers of Recruits paſs every Day in their way to the Army in Hungary. The Equipage of the Grand Duke is preparing with all Expedition. The Court has taken all neceſſary Meaſures to enable itſelf to defray the Expences of another Campain; for beſides the Sums negociated in foreign Countries, the Emperor will draw ſeveral Millions of Florins from the Revenue of the Clergy in his hereditary Dominions. The Heads of ſeveral rich Abbeys and Convents, have, from a Zeal for Religion, and Fidelity and Affection to his Imperial Majeſty, promis'd to contribute, to the utmoſt of their Power, to put him in a Situation effectually to act againſt the Enemy of Chriſtianity. They write from Hungary, that it is not only the Wolves which make the Roads of that Country dangerous, but alſo Bands of Robbers, who are ſo numerous and audacious as to have more than once attack'd Parties of the Imperial Troops. The Court is exceedingly diverted with an Account of a Gaſcoignade made by the Baſhaw of Zwornick, who it ſeems wrote to General Marulli, Commandant of Belgrade, the following Letter, viz.

" To the Commandant of the Imperial Forces in Belgrade.

" I ſend this to acquaint you, that I intend immediate" ly to come before Belgrade with an Army of 30,000 of
" our victorious Troops, in order to take Poſſeſſion of that
" Fortreſs, which has been unjuſtly forc'd out of the " Hands of true Muſſelmans. I give you this Notice that " you may be prepar'd to ſurrender the Place to me as
" ſoon as I ſhall ſummons you, and to give you time to
" prepare your Capitulation, ſo that there may remain no-
" thing more to do than to ſign it. I hope you will ſo
" far hearken to the Voice of Prudence, as to make no
" Difficulty of regulating Matters in the amicable manner
" I have preſcrib'd to you. I promiſe you on my part to
" act reaſonably towards the Inhabitants, and to leave
" them as fully in the Enjoyment of their Rights, Privi-
" leges and Prerogatives, as if they had continu'd ſo hap-
" py as to have been ever the Subjects of the High and
" Sublime Porte, the Glory and Proſperity of which may
" God encreaſe." To which Rodomontade General Marulli made the following Anſwer; " That he hoped, on " his Part, that the Baſhaw would keep his Word in pay-
" ing a Viſit to Belgrade; and that nothing ſhould be neg-
" lected to receive him in a ſuitable Manner."

Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Caroline is very much indiſpos'd, and attended by ſeveral Phyſicians.

Jan 20. Yeſterday arriv'd a Mail from France, which, as uſual, brought nothing material.

The Court of Vienna has not made the bullying Baſhaw of Zwornick more ridiculous, by publiſhing his rodomontading Letter to the Governor of Belgrade, than the Ruſſian Court has render'd eminent the Seraskier of Oczakow, now Priſoner at Petersburgh. This laſt ſounds loudly the Praiſe of that Officer's diſtinguiſhing Talents, who, we are told, has, by a ſingular Addreſs and uncommon Affability, laid the beſt Foundation for a Peace between the Empreſs and the Porte. In ſhort, he has greatly leſſen'd the mutual Rancour which ſubſiſted between the two Empires, and gone great Lengths towards making them think favourably of each other. So that how great an Evil ſoever the Porte might think the Loſs of the Seraskier, yet the greateſt Good is likely to accrue from it: For notwithſtanding the Propoſitions ſent by his Secretary were not then hearken'd to, by reaſon of the Outrage of the Multitude, yet they are ſaid to have made ſtrong Impreſſions on the Miniſtry of the Porte.

Jan. 25. They write from Hungary, that the Fortifications of the important Town of Temeſwar are greatly out of Repair, and not in a Condition of making a long Defence in caſe the ſame ſhould be attack'd by the Turks.

We hear that on Friday the Garland Man of War will be put into Commiſſion, the Command given to Capt. Pearce, and the Ship is to be ſtation'd at New-York.

And at the ſame time we hear, that the Hector Man of War will be put into Commiſſion, the Command given to Sir Yelverton Payton, Bart. and to be ſtation'd at Virginia.

Jan. 26. They write from Conſtantinople, that the Grand Signior has order'd a ſtrict Enquiry to be made into the Conduct of his General Officers who commanded at the Siege of Oczakow, with a view of rigorouſly puniſhing thoſe who ſhall be found to have been wanting in their Duty. Several Companies of Janiſſaries having refus'd to return to the Charge when a general Aſſault was given to the Place, and being ſuſpected of having kill'd two of their Commanders, it's ſaid will, by way of Example, be decimated.

London,

London, Feb. 24. Letters from Amſterdam ſay, that no Satisfaction has yet been made by the Spaniards to the States General, for the ſeveral Dutch Ships taken by the Guard de Coſtas in America; and that their High-Mightineſſes have at preſent ſo little Expectation of any Reſtitution being made on that Account, that they are rather apprehenſive of an Invaſion of ſome of their Colonies in the Weſt-Indies; which they have juſt Grounds to fear, from the Advices which have lately been receiv'd from ſeveral Ports of Spain, that Orders have ſent from the Spaniſh Court, to equip, with all Expedition, a Fleet of 15 or 20 Men of War, from 50 to 70 Guns, which, it's reported, are deſign'd for America, and that Troops are marching towards the Sea Coaſt with the utmoſt Secrecy.

It is reported that Mr. Terry, the King of Spain's Agent to the South-Sea Company, has receiv'd Advice from his Court, that four or five Dutch Men of War, commanded by Admiral Deſiſher, had actually ſunk and deſtroy'd four Spaniſh Guard de Coaſts off the Iſland of Curraco.

Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales is happily advanc'd ſeveral Months in her Pregnancy.

From the London Gazette.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, Feb. 27. 1737,8.

His Majeſty having been informed, that due Regard has not been paid to His Order of the 11th of Sept. 1737, has thought fit to declare, That no Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall go to pay their Court to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince or Princeſs of Wales, ſhall be admitted into His Majeſty's Preſence, at any of His Royal Palaces. GRAFTON.

London March 4. Yeſterday the Petition of the Weſt-India Merchants of London, was preſented to the Hon. Houſe of Commons, praying Redreſs for the Depredations of the Spaniards: There was one likewiſe from the Merchants of Briſtol, as well as one from a private Merchant of this City; and a private one from a Merchant of Briſtol; and all referr'd to a Committee of the whole Houſe for Thurſday ſe'nnight next. There were above 70 Gentlemen to attend the Petition, who were all received in a handſome Manner.
